MEMBERSHIP INVITATION
BECOME A LEADINGAGE ARIZONA MEMBER

Join us today, and become an integral part of Arizona's long term care voice! For more details about the types of membership, visit our website at www.leadingageaz.org.

Membership in the LeadingAge Arizona is open to all non-profit skilled nursing facilities, assisted living centers, HUD senior housing apartments, continuing care retirement centers, and organizations and businesses which provide long term care services and products. LeadingAge Arizona has a broad range of programs and services to assist its members in meeting the challenges of long term care. The Association also provides opportunities for business affiliates to share valuable products and services with the long term provider community.

Member Benefits Include:

- Representative in Policy and Governmental Affairs (PGA Committee) at the National, State and Local levels. Timely public policy and advocacy information on important state and federal health and housing issues through legislative updates, member alerts and other special communications. LeadingAge Arizona leaders, lobbyist, and advocates speak out on behalf of members on crucial issues and legislation affecting the long term care profession and senior living residents. LeadingAge Arizona advocates on behalf of members with the state department, CMS and AHCCCS. LeadingAge Arizona also participates in public hearings, state planning development, and the rule making process.
- Opportunities to share ideas, collaborate, and bring about change through active participation in networking and advisory groups, and by serving on a variety of committees and task forces. Members are encouraged to serve on important association, community, and governmental committees. Current LeadingAge Arizona committees include: Policy and Governmental Affairs (PGA); Education, Membership, Annual Conference and Safety.
- Access to continuing education opportunities for all levels of facility personnel covering a broad range of topics. LeadingAge Arizona provides state-of-the-art educational seminars to help professionals stay current on developments in their respective fields, and fulfill requirements for professional licensure. Throughout the year, LeadingAge Arizona offers quality seminars and workshops tailored to the unique and current needs of its members. LeadingAge Arizona's Annual Conference is geared toward the decision-makers, and focuses on leadership development. Other symposiums and summits are developed with all provider team members in mind, and offer a variety of educational sessions. All education opportunities feature nationally recognized presenters and discounted registration fees for LeadingAge Arizona members.
- LeadingAge Arizona members are also members of the American Association of Homes & Services for the Aging (AAHSA), the national organization representing members in Washington, D.C.
- Members are kept up-to-date on laws and regulations affecting long term care through the association's updates, email, broadcast fax, and direct mailings.
